JOIN US FOR A MEAL AND HELP FIGHT HUNGER IN OUR COMMUNITY

Become a part of the 13th annual St. Lucie County Empty Bowls Project. Students in St. Lucie County public and private schools come together every year in support of those struggling in our community. More than 500 handcrafted unique bowls made by the students are on display and for sale at the popular Farmer's Market in Downtown Fort Pierce. Local media always highlights this event as a hundreds of patrons participate in this event each year, buying one (and oftentimes, several) bowls knowing that 100% of the proceeds directly benefit our hungry neighbors.
